WSCC Field Tour & No Host Dinner

Wednesday, January 16, 2019; 1:00 PM – 5:00 PM; Dinner at 6:15 PM

Please plan to arrive by 12:45 PM at the Coupeville Inn on Penn Cove conference room, 200 NW Coveland St., Coupeville, WA 98239.

Tour Locations & Highlights

North Whidbey

- Firewise at Work on Whidbey
- Improving Water Quality in the Penn Cove Watershed
- Tales of Three Farms - Cost-Share Program Impacts
- Addressing Water Quantity Challenges on a Community Scale - West Beach Drainage Project
- Linking Farmers to Opportunities with NRCS

Central Whidbey

- Farms of the Ebey's Reserve – Water Quality Projects, Whidbey Island Grown Marketing, Farmland Preservation

South Whidbey

- Lone Lake Algae Management Project
- WICD Forest Planning Preserves Working Forest Lands
- Farm Planning and Implementation in the Maxwellton Watershed

We'll arrive back to historic downtown Coupeville by 5:00 PM. After checking in to your room at the Coupeville Inn on Penn Cove, consider a walk among the quaint shops of Front Street or the historic Coupeville Wharf before dinner – an interactive farm-to-table buffet beginning at 6:15 PM at the Coupeville Recreation Hall. The dinner will be prepared by local catering company Serendipity, featuring a sampling of some of Whidbey Island's finest locally raised meat and locally grown, seasonal vegetables.

Note: Dinner is preordered via RSVP. Preferred payment is online and must be received by 4:30 PM, Tuesday, January 8 at this link - <https://bit.ly/2Gy3Y1o> - or checks can be made out and mailed to WICD at the address below.

Cancellations must be made by noon, January 9 to receive refund. We ask that alcohol be kept to before or after dinner hours. We encourage you to visit Bayleaf, a nearby specialty wine and food store, (open until 6 PM). After dinner, you might also consider experiencing the local Coupeville scene at one of the Front Street bars – Front Street Grill or Toby's Tavern.

We hope that you and/or a member of your organization will be able to participate in this tour and dinner!

Best regards,

Karen Bishop, District Manager
